'WHY NANCY USES GAS' IS TOLD BY SIXTY-ONE IN CLEVER RHYMES

Prizes Awarded According to Today's Announcement—
Eight Honorably Mentioned.

Why does Nancy use gas?
On another page today is an advertisement in which the reason for Nancy's attitude is set forth in the clever rhyme which wins first prize in the contest just closed.

Mrs. Victor Hurd is the winner of the first prize offered by the Honolulu Gas Company. Her poetical answer to the question about Nancy is given with the advertisement, as is that of Mrs. E. K. Massee, winner of the second prize.

Sixty-one answers were received, showing not only that gas is popular and plenty of people know why it should be used, but also that advertising in the daily papers is widely read.
The conditions called for some thought and care on the part of the contestants, and the fact that there were 61 competitors indicates that Nancy has very many reasons for using gas.

Here are eight answers in rhyme which received honorable mention by the judges:

Nancy Gay has found the way,
Nancy uses gas.
Keeping house now seems like play,
Nancy uses gas.

Formerly her occupation
Left no time for recreation;
Now she has her compensation,
Nancy uses gas.

Nancy says to all her friends:
"Why don't you use gas?
Household problems never end,
If you don't use gas;
Kitchen drudgery's no joke,
From your shoulders lift the yoke,
Gas stoves cause no spot or smoke;
Be up to date—use gas."

PVT. F. L. FOWLER,
Co. A, 2d Infantry, Ft. Shafter, T. H.

Nancy Gay is happy today;
Nancy uses gas.
Keeping house is only play,
Since she uses gas.

Nancy now has time for pleasure;
Hubby gets his meals full measure;
Says Nancy is his greatest treasure;
Since she uses gas.

You will be like Nancy, too,
When you use gas.
Work in half the time is through,
When you use gas.

Kitchen always cool and bright;
Rooms all lit with soft white light—
Try it, you will find it right—
And always use gas.

G. S. VERBECK,
1285 Fort St., Honolulu.

Now the Carnival is o'er,
Nancy's tree to cook;
Pots and pans and gas range shine
Brightly in each nook.

Morning brings the coffee hot,
Bacon crisp and on the dot;
Biscuits light as foam—why not?
Nancy uses gas!

Do you think that Nancy Gay,
No one can surpass;
Molly, Mandy, Mabel, May,
Can—if they use gas.

Gas—the fuel up to date,
When hubby's out till dark and late,
He need not fear a stumbling fate;
His home is lit by gas.

M. D. BLACK,
1020 Kaplan St.

Sweet Nancy is happy,
Her gas stove is "snappy";
It makes the work easy and clean,
No bother with fuel.

Her cookies and pies
Would gladden your eyes,
As they lie in great heaps on the shelf,
She don't need a maid.

To try to do things by herself,
J. G. P.,
240 Beretania St.

Nancy Gay has cash on hand;
Nancy uses gas.
Home is neat, we understand,
Nancy uses gas!

Meals are hot and light is strong;
Mr. Gay smiles all day long,
And he sings that lusty song—
"Nancy uses gas!"

You will find the "Gays" are right
If you'll use gas!
Come to love its mellow light,
When you use gas!

Home is brighter for its glow,
Fuel bills fall far below,
What they used to be, and so
You USE GAS!

H. T. CRAVEN,
Pleasanton Hotel, Honolulu.

RE NANCY'S GAS.
Nancy Gay's a sweet young thing,
And she uses gas.

Prizes she will even sing,
Of her glorious gas.
Life before was one long drudge,
Against her housework she'd grudge.

Now she's happy, you may judge,
For she uses gas!

Nancy's hubby had a peave
Ere his wife used gas;
Breakfast late oft made him grieve,
At the lack of gas.

Now he's time to read the paper,
Ere to work he has to caper—
Says each other light's a taper
When compared with gas!

HERBERT M. AYRES.

Nancy Gay is wondrous wise,
Nancy uses gas.
On courting nights—it's my surmise—
Nancy used the gas.

But turned low, to give a glow,
Which shows the use of high and low,
And now she's happy with her beau—
Nancy uses gas.

Gas is the light for you to use,
Nancy uses gas.

Gas is the fuel you ne'er abuse,
Nancy uses gas.

Coffee hot and eggs done hurried,
Fire is sure with no one worried;

So Nancy's happy, never flurried—
Nancy uses gas.

G. M. DUNCAN,
258 Beretania St., Honolulu.

NANCY USES GAS.

Nancy Gay is a charming matron—
Nancy uses gas!

Nancy's our most valued patron—
Nancy uses gas!

In her home the lights are bright, Meals are cooked and served just right;

Life is just one long delight—

'Cause Nancy uses gas!

You will not envy Nancy Gay,
If you use gas.

Joy waits upon you every day,
When you use gas.

To have the best there is in life,
Freedom from worry, care and strife,

To be a cheerful, happy wife
You MUST use gas.

Fort street.

YOUNGER GENERATION

IS CONVERTING CHINA

Young China is converting old China to Christianity, says Rev.
George B. Neumann, missionary in the province of Szechuan, China, who is returning to the United States on a two year furlough.

"A Message from China" was the title of Rev. Neumann's address at the Methodist church last night. He said he found the work in China pleasant.

NEW ROUTE CONSIDERED

FOR VOLCANO VISITORS

To land volcano tourists at Kawahae and approach Kilauea from the lee side of the big island is a change in plans being considered by the tourist promoters of Hilo. This route of arriving at the volcano would give visitors an opportunity to see the Kona district and the Cook monument and would eliminate the hustle now necessary to get the tourists to the volcano and back to Hilo in time for the steamer.

Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge No. 3,
I. O. O. F., will give a garb bag party in Odd Fellows' hall on Thursday evening. There will be cards also and various other amusements, for which a nominal charge will be made.

MR. AND MRS. DODGE

TO RETURN TO HAWAII

After several years spent in Japan,
Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dodge will soon return to Hawaii. The Japan Advertiser of recent date says:

"A characteristic and worthy souvenir of his seven years in Japan is being left by Mr. F. H. Dodge in the form of a booklet of verses dedicated and addressed to the students of Japan. Readers have noted the sensitive and fine quality of the metrical translations which have occasionally appeared in the Advertiser from the pen of Mr. Dodge. The earlier poems in this little collection reveal the same responsiveness to 'the things that are more excellent,' and the parts of the book which are more al-rectly addressed to students such as the college songs, some of them set to good swinging tunes by the author, are charged with ringing optimism and faith in the value of life and the sacredness of work. It is as fine a souvenir as a student could wish to have of a loved teacher. Quotation is impossible here but the final phrase is not a bad pointer to the spirit of the whole:

"When Duty, Truth and Honor call our names.
Let each man answer 'Here.'"

"Mr. and Mrs. Dodge sail by the Minnesota next week and will make a short sojourn in China and Manila before returning to Hawaii and the mainland, where they hope to distribute something of what they have stored up in Japan of its art and man-fold interests."

SCOUTS BACK IN SCHOOL AFTER THREE DAYS OF CAMP LIFE

Return Bronzed and Happy, 120 of Them, After Annual Encampment at Kaneohe

Not a single mishap or illness marred the three days' encampment at Kaneohe enjoyed by the 120 Boy Scouts of Honolulu with their military guardians. Four boys were decorated with the commissioner's blue for scout bravery and coolness. The boys returned last night.

The boys hiked over the Pali to the end of the carline yesterday afternoon and arrived with many a tale to tell of their camp life, the military discipline which prevailed throughout the camping, and the contests in which all of them took part.

Kaneohe was pronounced ideal for the camp. The water is excellent, the steep slope allows good drainage and sanitation, and, best of all, the swimming is "swell," according to the scouts.

Army customs were strictly adhered to. Army rations were doled out to each scout. Special religious services were conducted by Chaplain Lutz of the 2nd Infantry, and in every possible way army life in the field was practiced, from airing the blankets in the morning to taps at 9:30 o'clock at night.

Many army officers were with the boys. Visitors from Honolulu throug-hed the camp yesterday and all expressed surprise at the discipline of the scouts. Scout Commissioner H.
